CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted; but frankly to say to them, that in the CHERRY PECTORAL they will find a remedy for their complaints, which, we believe, is the best antidote to pulmonary affections that has yet been discovered. We challenge the most searching investigation of its chemical properties, and will not put our hope in it, unless it richly deserves it. We have a warrant

Many eyes have seen, and will continue to survey from the public the skill we pride ourselves upon, and if they will find them perfectly faithful and a benefit, we shall be well rewarded for our labors and patronage.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College.

Dear Sir: I delayed answering the subject of your communication until I could personally test the virtues of your Cherry Pectoral in my own family, or that of some of my friends.

This I have done with a high degree of satisfaction, in cases both of adults and children.

I have found it, on all occasions, to be a powerful remedy for colds, coughs, &c.

PARRY H. HAYWARD, M.D.

Brunswick, Me., Feb. 3, 1847.

From an Overseer in the Hamilton Mills in Lowell.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Lowell, Aug. 10, 1849.

I have been cured of the worst cough I ever had in my life, by your Cherry Pectoral, and confidently advise all who are afflicted with coughs or consumption to give it a trial.

Yours, respectfully, D. EMERSON.

Read the following, and see what has relieved others, may relieve you:

United States Hotel,
Barnum's Corner, July 5, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful affection of the lungs and all the symptoms settled on my chest, for more than a year. I used to be constantly coughing, and could not lay down, night or day, without raising a great deal of phlegm. I have taken almost a dozen bottles of your Cherry Pectoral, and am entirely cured. I have not coughed since I began to take it, and my health is quite restored.

Yours, truly, JOHN ROBINSON.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, Practical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by one Agent in the following places: Bangor, LADD & INGRAHAM; SARGENT & PEARSON, Augusta; Hallowell, Gardiner & Co., Hallowell; Wilson, Ellsworth; Norris, Belfast; and by the Druggists generally throughout the country.

Sewing by Machinery.

All Persons Patentees, Patentees, Sewing Machines, Employers, and all others, Interested in Sewing of any description.

SEVERAL improvements have been made to reduce Machine for Sewing, but they were not worth the trouble of purchase, and could be used to no advantage or profit.

SINGER & HIBBERD'S Newly Invented Sewing Machine, invented by Isaac M. Singer, and manufactured by Singer & Hibberd, No. 29 Harvard Place, Boston, Mass., is offered to the public as a perfect machine, and will be found simple and adapted to perform a large variety of work, from the finest lawn to the thickest cloth, with a firm, even, and beautiful stitch, and is capable of a wide range of application. Any one of ordinary intelligence can learn to use it in a few hours, and will readily become expert in its management. The undersigned, who have had ample opportunity to test its merits, can say that it is the most durable and effective machine in use, and that it will do more and better work than any other machine they have seen in operation.

The stitch made by it is the same on both sides of the seam, and the seam is firm, elastic, and will not rip, even if one thread be cut every inch. The speed can be varied from 100 to 1500 stitches per minute, according to the skill of the operator. It is easy to take it out of the stand, and it can be used as a portable machine, if required.

The undersigned have purchased the right to manufacture and sell the above-named machine in Bangor and vicinity, and are confident that all who favor them with their patronage will be satisfied with the machine, and with the manner in which Sewing Machines will be sold hereafter.

The public are cautioned against purchasing any machine which will not have the name of the inventor, Isaac M. Singer, and the name of the manufacturer, Singer & Hibberd, Boston, Mass., stamped upon the face plate of the machine, as all machines without these names are infringements upon the rights of the undersigned, and the inventor, Isaac M. Singer, and will be dealt with accordingly.

The machine may be seen in operation at the store of the undersigned, No. 15 Hancock Block, Main-st., Bangor, where all orders will be promptly attended to.

SECURED AGAINST GUNPOWDER

Warranted not to Injure Books or Papers by Dampness!

THESE are the only Safes (WILDER'S PATENT) that have in every instance proved to be fire proof. Since the burning of the Prisons in New York city, and many others, the undersigned has introduced which will be found to possess the same qualities as those which have proved themselves to be

FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF.

The following is an extract from the Superintendent of the Magnetic Telegraph Company's circular in proof of the superiority of JOHN E. WILDER'S Safes over all others:

Baltimore, Oct 24, 1849.

John B. Wilder, Esq——

Dear Sir—The Safe I purchased of you was exposed to a great degree of heat in the burning of the Telegraph Office, in this city. It was in the fire six hours, the books and papers were uninjured, and the outside to the Safe very slight, although it fell from the second story to the basement of the building. The Safe repaired necessary to the Safe have been made, and will be found equal to when first used. It is still as good as new.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON

No. 22 State Street, Boston.

IN 1840 the undersigned was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents, Agent of the United States Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of 1837.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models, he still adopts a wide expenditure mode of securing them to the Patent Office; where he will be found ready to proceed without six weeks barrier, he continues to forward them free of expense—prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents, and to render advice on legal and scientific matters relating to the same. Patents secured in European and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbally explaining the inventions, and of consulting in regard to them, with the first rate assistants, of great practical experience, a collection of rare works, containing Specifications of Patents, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense, during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts, here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors the means of procuring Patents; assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult to obtain.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I executed the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, the Engineer of the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none in which clients could rely with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most successful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

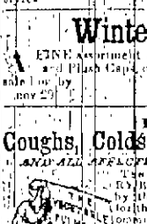
Coughs, Colds, Consumptions,

AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE LUNGS,



The VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, having been tested by the experience of thousands in the last twenty years, is recommended as one of the most efficient physicians and others, of the highest reputability, superior to any other preparation.

From the Editor of the Burlington Sentinel, May 17, 1849.—"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam prepared and by REED & CUTLER, of Boston, has become a very popular medicine everywhere for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption. That it is worthy of its high reputation is beyond a doubt, evidence of the immunity of the annual sales—Gentlemen above quackery, depending alone upon the intrinsic virtues of their medicinal preparations for their reputation. Humbug is a delightful, though expensive and pleasure to the struggling and gratuitous tribute of our recommendation to a medicine we know to be of real merit."

An eminent physician writes us, "I have for some time past made use of, in the case of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, such, particularly, species of disease, and it gives me much pleasure of every kind; and with confidence recommend it as superior to any other preparation used for the above complaints."

Nov. 1, 1850.—New Certificates, in almost every day's mail of the most unexceptionable character, but the compilation fear that the quality was not generally well known, and its virtues not generally acknowledged by physicians and others, as to make it unnecessary, to their satisfaction, further proof of its merits—of this I daily receive ample evidence.

☞ BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS, such as Carter's Compound Pulmonary Balsam, American Pulmonary Balsam, and others, in part bearing the name. Enquire for the article by its whole name, the

and see that the written signatures of REED & CUTLER, June by Carter, upon a yellow label, on the blue wrapper. Each bottle and seal is stamped "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam."

Prepared by REED & CUTLER, Importers and Wholesale Dealers in Medicines, Paints, Chemicals and Dye Stuffs, 33 and 34 Merrimack-st., and retail by Druggists, Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. For particulars and recommends, see a pamphlet accompanying each bottle.—Price 50 cents. For sale in Bangor by LADD & INGRAHAM.

Littell's Living Age,

E. LITTELL & CO.,

Corner of Tremont and Bromfield Streets.

THIS work is conducted in the spirit of Littell's Museum of Foreign Literature, which was favorably received by the Public for twenty years, but as it is twice as large, and appears so often, the price not only gives spirit and freshness to it by many times (which were excluded by a month's delay), but while it is extending its scope and gathering up more attractive variety, while on the ground and substantial part of its literary, historical, and political purport, is fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The elaborate and able Reviews of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on Poetry, its keen political Commentaries, its highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain Scenery, the contributions to Literature, History, and Common Life, by the accurate Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenæum, the busy and various Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermingled with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chamber's admirable, Edinburgh Journal. He does not consider it worth his while only to borrow without wisdom from Punch, and, when he thinks it well enough, makes use of the thunder of The Times.

The steamship has brought Europe, Asia, and Africa, into more neighborhood; and we greedily multiply our connections, as Merchants, Politicians, and Politicals, with all parts of the world; so that much more than ever it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the condition and changes of foreign countries. And this not only because of their nearer connection with ourselves, but because the nations seem to be hastening, through a rapid process of change (to some new state of things, which the ablest political prophet cannot compute or foresee).

Geographical discoveries, the progress of Colonization, (which is extending over the whole world), and Voyages and Travels, afford favorite matter for the selections and, in general, the editorial judgment, and very fully occupy the pages of this work. The department of Foreign affairs, which is ever rising upon us.

While the Living Age is designed to suit all who wish to keep themselves informed of the rapid progress of the movement—to Statesmen, Divines, Lawyers, and Physicians—to men of business and men of leisure—it will be found to be equally attractive and useful to their Wives and Children. It is indispensable in every well informed family. We say indispensable, because in this day of cheap literature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is bad in taste and vicious in morals, in any other way than by furnishing a sufficient supply of a healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

By possessing the latest from the chief" by providing abundantly for the imagination, and by a large collection of Biography, Voyages and Travels, History, and more solid matter, a work is produced which will exhibit, for universal popularity, and to retain the standard of public taste.

This excellent work is published every Saturday, by E. LITTELL & CO., Boston, who supply orders by mail from all parts of the country. Remit any sum to them, and they will send the work for that amount. Each number contains a handsomely printed sheet of 64 pages, double column octavo—Price 12½ cts.—or by the year, Six Dollars.

We add to our own recommendation what our readers will value infinitely more, a letter from the late Ex President, J. Q. Adams:—

WASHINGTON, 27th December, 1845.

Of all the Periodical Journals devoted to Literature and Science which abound in Europe and in this country, this has appeared to me to be the most useful. It contains indeed the exposition only of the current literature of the English language, but this is by no means so extent and comprehension includes a portraiture of the human mind in the utmost expansion of the present age.

THE PILES!

A CURE FOR LIFE SECURED!

DR. UPHAM'S CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PILES.

THE VEGETABLE PILE SPECIFIC, prepared by Dr. A. Upham, a distinguished physician of New York city, is the only really successful remedy for that dangerous and distressing complaint, the Piles, ever offered to the American public.

The effects produced by the Mineral Mixtures, Panacea, Colocynth, Guaiacum, or other powerful and irritating purgatives. No fear of taking cold while under its influence, no change in diet necessary. It taken according to direction, a cure for life is guaranteed.

Another certificate to the virtues of Dr. Upham's Elixir is received from the city of New York.

New York, Nov. 25, 1849.

Messrs. Wyatt & Ketchum—Gents: For several years I have been troubled with piles, a very distressing complaint, and one which has baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians, and defied all the various and patent medicines, that until this spring I never used any medicine capable of affording me relief. The Piles being then so severe that I followed several occupations to be performed, without any personal exertion, I was induced to try Dr. Upham's Elixir. I purchased three boxes at your store, and from the use of which I soon found myself entirely cured of the Piles and my health much improved.

I remain sirs, yours with much esteem,
Philadelphia, Sept. 3 1849. JOHN SPEAR.

Extract from Letter—Dear Sir—About four years ago I was afflicted with what was called Chronic Dysentery. I have suffered with it every now and then, and physicians have told me that my bowels were ulcerated, for blood and pus accompanied with a peculiar putrid smell were the frequent discharges. A short time since I was induced to try your Elixir, in hopes of benefit from a change of medicine, and have suffered more severely than ever before. I called at your office to exhibit me for $10, which I paid me in full. In five days I was entirely relieved from my complaint, and in three months I was entirely cured of the Piles. This statement is given with my own free will and accord, and I am perfectly willing you should publish it in any way you may think proper, as I feel confident in the medicine, and I purchased a box, and one dose of which has apparently cured me, and am prepared to say every thing in its favor, of tender any service I can to humanity, as I have to myself.

Respectfully yours, BENJAMIN PERCIVAL.

Steamship Atlantic.

Various surmises are being put forth, regarding the non arrival of the steamship Atlantic, and also as to the point where we will first hear from her. One hypothesis is that she exhausted her coal, and having met with foul weather, was obliged to drift with the gale, and is now probably in the neighborhood of the Azore Islands. The New York Sun is of the opinion that her machinery broke down when some was five or six days out, and that she has put back to Galway or some port on the coast of Ireland, where she could refit. If this be the case, we need not expect to hear of her sooner than by the Canada, which was to leave Liverpool on the 18th inst., and will be due here February 1st—for supposing her machinery broke down when she was midway, it would take her at least fifteen days to make Galway with sails. Counting that she was five days out, and fifteen for putting back, she would thus reach Galway only on the 17th of January, so that it would be almost impossible for the news to reach London or Liverpool even in time for the Canada. The Sun believes that the Atlantic is safe. We trust these last surmises may prove correct, but we cannot but remember that similar hopes were raised in reference to the steamship President.

☞ Mr. E. C. Parks, the agent for selling in the State of Maine a neat, compact and very convenient easily adjusted Interest Table, is now on a visit to this city for the purpose of supplying those of our citizens who may wish to possess so convenient and valuable a table. In addition to the interest of any sum from the smallest to a thousand dollars, from one day to seven years, being indicated at a glance and with great accuracy, there is a Time Table in a neat and practical form. There are many of those tables which commend them to the attention of all who have occasion to calculate interest.

The Unknown Dead.—A correspondent of one of our exchanges, writing from San Francisco, and alluding to the deaths by cholera, says that the names of many victims are not published. One undertaker, in a single day, buried five persons who's names could not be ascertained. Men arrive from the mines, or from sea, steerages to almost every one. Boarding in restaurants, and paying for each meal at the door, and for their lodgings each night in advance, they have no necessity to register their names; and hundreds of these men have died with in a few weeks utterly unknown to the community.

☞ The election of Charles Sumner, as U. S. Senator on the part of the State of Massachusetts, does not seem to have that quiet effect upon the House of Representatives which was so fondly anticipated by the coalitionists. Northern democrats like Massachusetts even among the locofocos who do not like the idea of political proscription, would require them to stultify themselves. It is said that they are bound to be brought to the work, directly or indirectly; but if they do, we shall have to say that we have given them credit for more consistency than they possessed.

☞ For the purpose of quieting all hard-souls of seeing or know of the authorship of the communication which recently appeared in our columns against those opposed to the efficiency of the organization of the Sons of Temperance to effect the needed Temperance reform, over the signature of "I," we deem it but just and proper to say that the article was not written by either of the clergymen of our city.

We cannot but feel the force or suspicion of any person in any position on which to raise imputation or to keep up correspondence.

☞ The Emperor of Russia has given £10 000 for the use of the Stuart and Gardner at Cowes, and the Emperor of Austria has taken Mivart's Hotel for the season. Hire rates in London are rising enormously, as much as £20 per week being offered for a small house in Clarges street. There are reports of most extraordinary contracts in the provision line, one Westerner is the only having arranged for 1 000 chickens, for the Great Fair.

☞ The Ladies of the Universalist Society in Oldtown propose holding a popular Levee in the village on Thursday evening, 30th inst., to which they cordially invite the public. These Ladies have applied the nucleus of the receipts to provide attractions for this Levee that shall be worthy object. They will spread a tempting table and furnish good music, and an agreeable intellectual repast. With all these in their favor they cannot fail to secure hosts of visitors.

☞ The Lincoln Democrat says that it will that region there is an interest in the question in the necessity of a railroad from Bath to Rockland. It seems to be settled in the mind of the Democrat that the road is to be built, and that there is ample ability in enterprise and wealth on the part of the people on the route to construct the road and they are invited to begin at once.

☞ Does the editor of the Belfast Journal agree to the stuffing system of education—the mere cramming of the memory, or to the development of the powers of the mind? If the latter, we think he will find his objection answered.

☞ The Portland Advertiser has information that Mr Samuel Hersey of Sumner has realized the handsome sum of $1 0 27 from the sale of dried fruits which were the products of his farm and cured by his own family the past year.

☞ The Secretary of War orders that the commanding officer at each military post shall, if possible, annually cultivate a kitchen garden with the soldiers under his command, to enable him to supply the hospital and men with necessary vegetables throughout the year.

Lieut. Geo. H. Preble, of Portland, now attached to the Coast Survey, has been ordered to join the U. S. frigate St. Lawrence, which is to sail about the 1st of February, for London, with American articles for the World's Fair.

Somebody—name unknown—has left at the landing at Gen. Harrison's farm in North Bend, a magnificent marble monument in memory of the illustrious ex-President. The family have not the least intimation from whence it came.

The only capital punishment the ladies are in favor of is Running about the next.

Growing Wheat.

To the Farmers of the United States:

As has often been asserted, the growing of wheat for a number of years past has, to the farmers of Maine, been a very precarious business. Many who formerly raised enough for their own consumption and some to spare, have been under the necessity of going without or of depending upon others for a supply. The latter alternative, for the most part, has been adopted for which could there be substituted a surer and more profitable crop, the public would be benefited to the full extent of the difference.

I have raised, Indian, Sussex, one thousand bushels per annum for the last seven years, and have never failed in getting a crop of from 50 to 75 bushels per acre, and that too on the poorest of land, and with but little labor. Many a family, at the present high prices of flour, could save from $50 to $100 per annum by raising their own bread stuff. Many a family, at the present high prices of flour, could save from $50 to $100 per annum by raising their own bread stuff. Many a family, at the present high prices of flour, could save from $50 to $100 per annum by raising their own bread stuff.

Planting to accomplish my success in growing wheat, the past season, I might be interesting to the readers of your valuable paper, if I should give the following statement:

May 29th, sowed four bushels and twenty quarts of thrashed buckwheat, (as this is two and a half acres of ground,) on a dressing of three bushels of ashes per square rod. On the 30th of July, mowed the buckwheat, which yielded 11 bushels and 17 quarts, yielding per acre, 4 bushels 5 quarts; sowed upon per acre, 1 bushel 7 1 quarts. At two three was grown upon land that had been moderately manured the year before and planted the remainder upon land that had been kept under the last of August, 39 bushels, or nearly eight for one sowed. The latter, which is called the best, was applied soon after the grain came up.

Now, I do not write this thinking that every extra yield, or for the purpose of crowing, but to one who has, for many years, been obliged to go to New York mill or else shall not raise for unwholesome cost of the transaction, for it is to see the long empty bins again replenished—even with a small quantity of excellent wheat.

Stock Feeding.

We have several times alluded to the improvements and experiments of Marshall Mower, Esq., of this city. In his farming operations. One thing is certain and obvious, that from some cause his farm makes a much better appearance than formerly, and is also much more profitable.

The following statement of his relative to his method of feeding stock will doubtless be interesting to our agricultural readers and perhaps suggest to them some improvements.

"I have raised, Sudlust, Sussex, one thousand bu. T[illegible]sh ruta bage turnips of about satisfactory, and placed them in a cellar so constructed and ventilated as to keep them in perfect good order, at one end of which there is a cooking apartment where I have set a potash kettle covered steam tight, which holds four bushels of turnips. To cook the turnips I add to them two pails of water, fetch them to a boil, and then close the furnace door. The following morning they are thoroughly cooked and are then put into a half hogshead tub with one pint of salt, and mashed to the consistency and appearance of pumpkin prepared to put into paste for pies. In this state they are given hot to twelve cows and a horse and devoured voraciously. In addition to this I give them as much straw and coarse hay as they will eat clean.

I give this, not as the result but to elicit the views of your correspondents in conducting an experiment to a favorable result.

It ought to have said that the steam is carried some forty feet through a wooden pipe and condensed in the fodder, in the middle of the barn floor."

MARTIN MOWER.

Around her waist I put my arm—I felt as soft as cake; "O dear," says she, "what liberty you printers do take." Why, yes, my Sal, my charming gal, (I squeezed her some I guess;) Can you say it, my chick against the freedom of the press? I kissed her some—I did by gum—she looked almost too good to eat; I gave her another then, and then says she, I do confess I rather poster kinder like the freedom of the press.

It is said that the secret of the success of Mrs. Miller, the celebrated tobacconist, is because she has so much capital to back her.

Maine and the Railroad Enterprise.

The Railroad Journal says:—

The State of Maine is by far the most interesting field for railway enterprise in New England if not equal to any Northern State. The extension of the proposed line from the Kennebec river to the borders of New Brunswick will give a great trunk line across the entire breadth of the State a little east of 200 miles from the State line of New Hampshire. The influence of such a line of railway, passing through many of the principal towns, in the most populous and flourishing portion of the State, would give a new impulse to every branch of enterprise—awaken new agencies now dormant, and reclothe in the valley of the Kennebec those streams which it must cross, from Kittery to Calais and from both its eastern sides contribute branches of remunerable branch lines of railway yet to be built.

Business on the Railroad.—We were kindly favored last week with a statement of the amount of freight sent westward from Waterville station for nine days ending the 15th, which was inadvertently omitted. The total was 451 119 pounds or 216 tons 1118 lbs., the freight bills of which amounted to $5,67,62 or a little more than $60 daily. This is only the net freight and the amount taken from Waterville. It will be seen that only about one third of what is taken on the line.

The following articles constituted of the following articles viz.—1769 pounds beef, or 266 barrels and 1 box, 1 box 3 cases woolens, 20 firkins butter, 10 0 lumber 121 head cattle, 105 rolls upper leather 30 dozen pairs 182 sides 2 cases 83 [illegible] contains 14 107 lbs wool, 57 cases [illegible] 21 boxes [illegible] 2 dozen shovels 2 [illegible] 1 box [illegible] 1 bale [illegible] 1 box [illegible] 2 boxes [illegible] 3 barrels [illegible] 14 boxes [illegible] 3 bales [illegible] 2 barrels put up 2 boxes and 1 barrel old [illegible] 20 packages window sash 1 cask barrels [illegible] 2 packages lozenge boxes 2 packages [illegible] cards, 1 piano 1 [illegible] and tenpin [illegible] equipments [illegible] 10 bunches [illegible] 2 [illegible] 1 [illegible] 1 [illegible] 1
